

Village Links of Glen Ellyn 1967-2018

Village Links of Glen Ellyn 1967-2018

27 hole golf facility owned by the Village of Glen Ellyn established 1967
Operates without any tax dollars

1981

2001

Joined the ACSP 1991

Environmental Planning
Wildlife and Habitat Management
Chemical Use Reduction and Safety
Water Conservation
Water Quality Management
Outreach and Education

1st public golf course in the nation to be designated a Certified Wildlife Sanctuary
Golf Course 1993

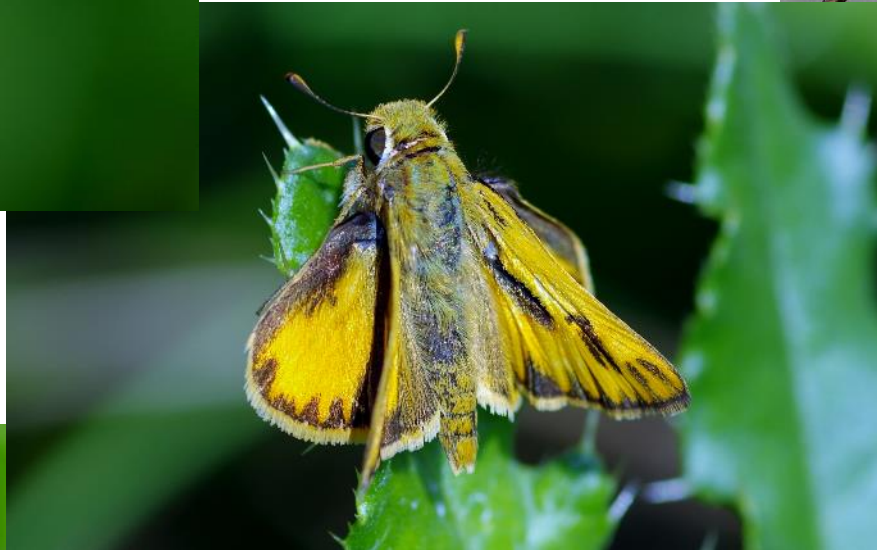

Village Links of Glen Ellyn – A 25 year Case Study

40 acres of woodland, wetland,
prairie and pond buffers.

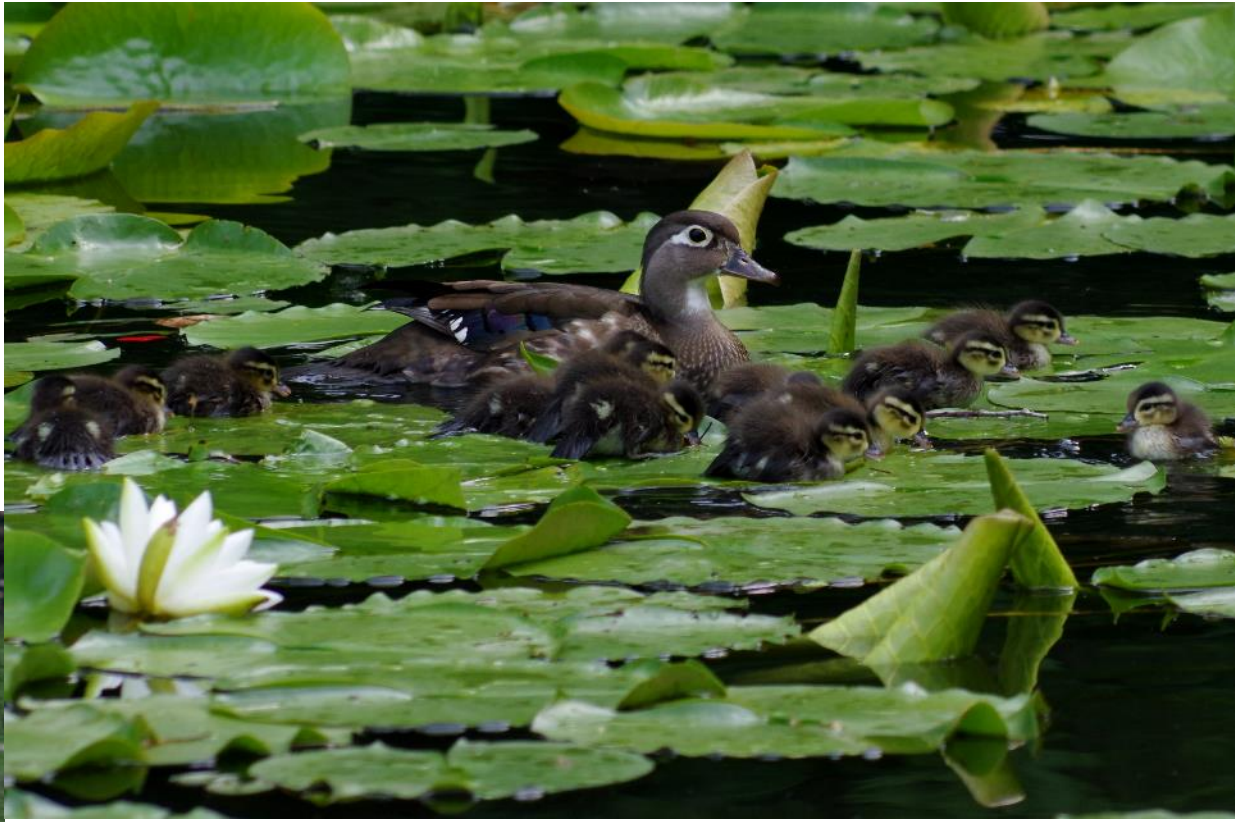

5,000 + cavity
nesting native
birds fledged since 1991.

Golf course to table

Micro-greens
Herbs
Seasonal produce
Cut flowers

Monarchs in the rough – Audubon International

1. The look of your property improves.
2. It's fun for staff.
3. It's a good way to involve the public.
4. It can save you money.
5. You look like a hero to your community.
6. You receive national and local recognition.
7. There is additional revenue from guests.
8. You are viewed as a conservation and environmental expert.
9. You will love going to work.
10. It's the right thing to do.

