

POLLINATOR PUZZLE

Pollinators are animals that move pollen from flower to flower as they visit the plants to eat their nectar. Without this exchange of pollen, many flowers couldn't produce new seeds.

Connect the dots to find out which pollinator is ready for some nectar from this jewelweed flower. Then, color the picture you've created!

